The Principal of The International Bilingual School of Provence said that the awards recognised the talent, dedication and commitment of both learners and staff.

Janet Morris, Director, International Network, said: 'It is extremely rewarding to congratulate Cambridge learners and teachers at who have worked so hard to achieve tremendous success in Cambridge examinations. The results are a reflection of the enormous talent, not only among learners but also within the teaching profession. Learners from The International Bilingual School of Provence have a bright future ahead of them, and I wish them every success in their future.'

Cambridge programmes and qualifications are taken by learners in more than 10000 schools in 170 countries. They are recognised by universities and employers around the world.
